

Estd : 2007

AAER's ASIAN COLLEGE OF SCIENCE & COMMERCE

(Affiliated to Savitribai Phule Pune University & Approved by Govt. of Maharashtra)

ACCREDITED BY NAAC WITH "B+" GRADE and Recognised Under UGC 2(f)

Sr No. 28/15/16, Narhe Dhayri Road, PARI Company Chowk, Dhayari, Pune - 411041.

☎ 020-24690620, 24690610 www.asianacademypune.ac.in Email :asianacademypune@gmail.com

(Non Aided College)

B.Com (Regular)

Program Outcome

- This programme could give well-trained personnel to address the needs of industries, Banking Sectors, Insurance Firms, Financing companies, Transportation Agencies, and Warehousing, among others.
- Students can get skills in a variety of areas after graduation, such as marketing manager, sales manager, and overall company administration abilities.
- After completing this course, students' capacity to make judgments on a personal and professional level will improve.
- Students can start their own business on their own.
- Students can have a comprehensive understanding of finance and commerce.
- Knowledge of several specialisations in accounting, costing, banking, and finance, as well as practical experience, helps students to stand out in organisations.

Program Specific Outcome

- By the end of the B.com degree programme, students will have acquired the necessary knowledge, abilities, and attitudes.
- They can become a Manager, Accountant, Management Accountant, Cost Accountant, Bank Manager, Auditor, and so on, depending on how well they prepare. Company secretaries, teachers, professors, stockbrokers, and government jobs, to name a few.
- Students will demonstrate their abilities in a variety of professional tests such as the C.A., C.S., CMA, MPSC, and UPSC. As well as other forms of coercion.
- Students will gain thorough systematic and subject skills within various disciplines of finance, auditing and taxation, accounting, management, communication, and computer in day-to-day business activities.

- Students will gain thorough systematic and subject skills within various disciplines of finance, auditing and taxation, accounting, management, communication, and computer.
- Students can also learn how to work as an accountant, audit assistant, tax consultant, or computer operator. As well as other types of financial assistance.
- Students will gain advanced accounting job skills, including how to apply quantitative and qualitative information to their future corporate professions.

Course Outcomes

Financial Accounting:

- To provide students with the opportunity to understand accounting principles and concepts.
- Students are equipped with knowledge of accounting's practical applications.
- To help students understand the fundamentals of partnership accounting, and other accounting-related topics.
- The learner will have a thorough understanding of accounting practise.
- Prevailing in partnership firms, as well as other related issues
- To determine the technical knowledge required to keep the books of accounts up to date.
- To encourage students to keep their books of accounts up to date.

Marketing and Salesmanship

- This course provides students with real marketing knowledge and strategies.
- To research and evaluate the fundamental concepts and developments in marketing.
- To be aware of latest changes in the marketing field.

Computer Concepts and applications

- To familiarise pupils with the computer environment and operating systems
- To familiarise students with accounting software such as tally.
- Students' skills and expertise in online applications have to be developed commerce education.

Business Mathematics and Statistics

- To utilise and comprehend useful functions in business, as well as the notion of EMI.
- To comprehend the various concepts of population and sample, and to make appropriate decisions.
- Calculation of many forms of averages and variation is familiar to pupils.
- To gain a better understanding of how matrices are used in business.

Banking and Finance

- To familiarise students with the principles of banking and to provide them with a full understanding of banking operations.
- To improve pupils' ability to understand banking ideas and procedures.
- To familiarise pupils with the banking industry and processes.
- To make the new concepts introduced in the financial system understandable to the students.

Compulsory English

- To provide students with relevant and practical pieces of prose and poetry so that they can learn not just the beauty and communicative power of English, but also how to use it.
- To introduce pupils to a wide range of themes that are prevalent in today's socioeconomic and cultural life.
- To improve students' oral and written communication abilities in order to increase their employability.
- Students' overall linguistic competency and communicative abilities should be developed.

Functional English

- To expose students to a fair mix of old and new literary extracts with a variety of themes that are both interesting and informative, in order for them to appreciate the beauty and communication potential of English.
- To raise pupils' awareness of cultural values as well as current global issues.
- To foster literary sensitivities and communication skills among students.

Business Economics (Micro)

- To provide students knowledge of Micro Economic concepts and inculcate an analytical approach to the subject matter.
- To arouse the students interest by showing the relevance and use of various economic theories.
- To apply economic reasoning to solve business problems.

S.Y. B.com

Business Communication

- To make pupils aware of the importance of business communication.
- To comprehend the communication process and its significance.
- To raise understanding of emerging business communication trends, as well as diverse communication media and gadgets.
- Extend commercial communication skills through practise and application.

Corporate Accounting

- This course is designed to educate students about the accounting techniques used by businesses.
- The students' knowledge of accounting standards will be enhanced.
- To familiarise pupils with the concept of stock valuation.
- To teach students about keeping business finances, amalgamation, absorption, and firm reconstruction.

Business Economics (Macro)

- To familiarise students with the fundamental concepts of macroeconomics and how they are applied.
- Students will learn about Gross National Product (GNP), Net National Product (NNP), Income at Factor Cost or National Income at Factor Prices, Per Capita Income, Personal Income (PI), and Disposable Income, among other topics.
- To investigate the interrelationships between vast aggregates.
- To address economic problems by employing economic thinking.

Business Management

- To comprehend the concept, functions, and significance of management, as well as how to apply it.

- To teach the student about management concepts, functions, and theories.

Elements of company law

- Students will learn the principles of company law as well as the regulations of the Companies Act of 2013.
- To familiarise students with new topics in the company law regime.
- To familiarise pupils with the roles and obligations of Key Managerial Personnel.

Indian Banking System – I

- The goal is to familiarise students with the Indian banking system.
- Students will be able to comprehend the reforms and other advancements in Indian banking.
- To educate people about the Reserve Bank of India's responsibilities and roles.

Cost and works accounting I

- To comprehend basic cost ideas, cost elements, and cost sheets.
- Educating students on the differences between financial and cost accounting.
- Costs of materials and labour are calculated.
- The ability of students to use theoretical information in a practical setting will improve.

A course in environmental studies

- To raise people's awareness of environmental issues.
- Instill a fundamental understanding of the environment and its issues.
- Developing a caring attitude toward the environment.
- Developing abilities to assist those who are concerned in detecting and resolving environmental issues.

T.Y. B. Com.

Business Regulatory Framework (Mercantile Law)

- The student will be well-versed in the fundamentals of the legal framework that governs the corporate sector.

- Students should be familiar with the fundamental principles, terminologies, and provisions of Mercantile and Business Laws.
- To raise knowledge among students about the laws that govern trade, business, and commerce.

Advanced Accounting

- To equip students with an understanding of various accounting principles.
- To provide information about accounting methods, procedures, and techniques.
- To familiarise students with a realistic approach to account writing through the use of software and the learning of various accounts.

Indian & Global Economic Development

- Students will be introduced to a novel approach to the study of the Indian economy.
- To assist pupils in understanding the current state of the Indian economy.
- To render the process of the Indian economy's integration with the rest of the world's economies.
- To keep students informed about new issues in India's foreign trade policies.

Auditing and taxation

- Students will learn the fundamentals of auditing as well as many facets of taxation.
- Students will have a thorough understanding of the income tax system as well as knowledge of various tax rules.
- To provide information on the creation of an audit report, the filing of an income tax return, advance tax, and tax deducted at source, as well as the tax collection authorities established under the Income Tax Act of 1961.

Banking & Finance II (Financial Markets and Institutions in India)

- Provide pupils with knowledge of financial markets and their diverse segments.
- To provide students with a grasp of the operations and trends in India's financial markets.
- To familiarise them with the workings of financial institutions and their role in the Indian economy.

Cost and Works Accounting II

- To keep students up to date on the ever-expanding horizons of Cost Accounting knowledge.
- Students can learn about various cost accounting approaches and procedures.
- To convey knowledge of the concepts and principles of overheads application.

Banking & Finance III (Banking Law and Practices in India.)

- To improve students' understanding of Banking Regulation Acts.
- To provide a complete understanding of the Indian banking system and the laws that govern it.
- To impart a knowledge of the banking sector's nature and relevance.
- To be familiar with the organisation of finance-related fields.
- To disseminate information about a business's source of funding.

Cost and Works Accounting III

- To provide information about costing approaches.
- To provide cost audit training in terms of principles, processes, and legal provisions.